PASPB HAS THE ENERGY

THE PERMIAN BASIN SOCIETY IS RAISING THE BAR!

The Permian Basin continues to demonstrate its significant position in our industry. At the COPAS Fall national meeting, PASPB was acknowledged for membership growth and participation. We are strong and growing because of dedicated professionals like you!

Collection for Texas Leadership Charter Academy - Midland

TLCA Midland has asked for donations of basic hygiene essentials for their students; specifically: shampoo, conditioner, toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant, hairbrushes, combs, lotion, soap, feminine products, underwear for boys and girls in sizes 4-14. We will have a collection box at our October and November meetings.

Headshot & Happy Hour

Join us at The Basement at Opal's Table. We will have a skilled photographer set up in a private area to take professional headshots. While you wait, grab some appetizers and/or beverages and network with other local professionals in the industry. This event is free for PASPB members and $25 for non-members.

PASPB SEPTEMBER RECAP

PASPB at the Fall Meeting in Colorado Springs

7 PASPB members attended the national meeting, hosted by the Colorado Society.

We kicked off our first society meeting at the Petroleum Club of Midland. Our speaker was Tom Wierman, executive director of COPAS.

Our PASPB Socials & Community Chair, Leslie Parra, took home the prize for longest drive!
